Budapest is a beautiful city steeped in history and culture, situated on the banks of the River Danube. The capital of Hungary, this wonderful city has so much to offer any visitor. Some highlights – secrets of the Jewish Quarter, Ecseri Flea Market, River Danube Cruise, wine tasting tour and of course the usual hop on/hop off tourist bus to see the historic castle, opera house and you could walk the famous chain bridge which connects the Buda to the Pest, will not take you long to realise why this city is called the Paris of the East.

Situated on both sides of the Danube – Buda to one side, Pest to the other, the city has a wealth of artistic and cultural treasures, including the Neo-Gothic Parliament Building and is renowned for its spas, such as the Rudas, dating back 400 years or more recent Art Nouveau gems, such as the Gellert.
