Valetta

6 days From £699pp ~ Departs Apr - Nov 2019

Local boats

Malta has a long and distinguished relationship with Britain and has been a popular destination for many decades. In 2018, the country really came of age as its ancient capital, Valetta, was European City of Culture, so now is a great time to visit with the city looking its best.

A full range of excursions are available to choose from during your stay in Malta, showcasing some of the many highlights of this delightful island, whilst still allowing plenty of time to relax, enjoy the hotel's facilities and (hopefully) soak up the Mediterranean sun!

Choose from: Valletta, the capital city of Malta, National War Museum and Casa Rocca Piccola, the three cities: Vittoriosa, Cospicua and Senglea with harbour cruise, Gozo - with seashore lunch, Mosta, Mdina and Rabat. These are just a few of the possible excursions to choose from.

Included in the price

- Return flights from London Heathrow to Malta
- Return transfers to your hotel with a meet and greet
- Five nights accommodation on dinner, bed and breakfast basis with local wine/beer/soft drinks included at the four-star Dolmen Hotel, St Pauls Bay

Subject to flight/hotel availability.

Price based on 35 passengers

Where you stay - Dolmen Hotel, St Paul's Bay

Beautifully located at the water's edge, this four-star hotel overlooks the Mediterranean Sea. The hotel is built on a site that incorporates an authentic Neolithic temple, and is within easy walking distance of shops and entertainment as well as offering excellent facilities such as four swimming pools, three bars, three restaurants and very comfortable bedrooms, many with sea view. Other hotels also available.
