The lush, volcanic Portuguese island of Madeira lies 400 miles off the coast of Africa and is 36 miles by 14 miles of outstanding natural beauty. Its warm, temperate climate makes it a verdant, sub-tropical paradise that is a delight to visit at any time of year. It is a wonderful destination for botany enthusiasts with a wealth of gardens, walkers with its myriad of levada footpaths or those simply wanting to relax with a good book.

Much of Madeira has been designated a conservation area and it displays a wealth of superb flowers blooming effortlessly throughout the year. There are plenty of cultural sights too, particularly in the capital, Funchal which has good museums, an impressive cathedral, farmers' market and lots of excellent restaurants. A full day included tour (and a lovely lunch with wine) will show you some of the highlights of the island, leaving plenty of time for personal exploration or simply to relax at the hotel. Wonderful gardens are just waiting to be visited, the difficulty is choosing which ones, but don't miss the beautiful Monte Palace Gardens reached by cable car from Funchal with a descent on one of the famous toboggans.

Our seven-night trip is phenomenal value with scheduled flights, four-star accommodation, transfers and an island tour.
