Rathaus, Basel Town Hall

Basel is a city on the Rhine River in northwest Switzerland, close to the country's borders with France and Germany. It is Switzerland's oldest university city and contains the tomb of the 16th century Dutch scholar, Erasmus. Historic landmarks of the city include the large market square with its richly decorated red sandstone town hall and the late Romanesque-Gothic cathedral. During a walk through the old town, past small boutiques, antique book shops but also shops of modern designers, a visit to the “Läckerli Huus” to try the traditional Basel honey cake is well worth your while.
