Valencia is fast becoming the must-visit city in Spain and this holiday will show you exactly why its burgeoning reputation is well-founded. One of Europe's best and least known collections of Art Nouveau is augmented by Calatrava's stunning City of Arts and Sciences, added to a charming old town - right on the Mediterranean - it is a heady, sunny and attractive cocktail. Excellent art galleries, a magnificent Gothic cathedral and superb restaurants serving the city's speciality, paella, complete the picture.

Less well known than Barcelona or Madrid, Spain's third city offers as much as either for an enjoyable short break. A lovely Mediterranean climate means that any time is a great time to visit. Old town highlights include the Cathedral, medieval palaces and a delightful Art Nouveau market as well as a host of excellent, affordable restaurants - paella is the local speciality. Don't miss the stunning river walkway that connects the city to the sea. During your walk you will be able to see the amazing architecture of the City of Arts and Sciences, one of the twelve treasures of Spain. Our base is the perfectly-located four-star Ayre Astoria Palace Hotel.

Our three-night trip represents excellent value to a city that is just waiting to be discovered.

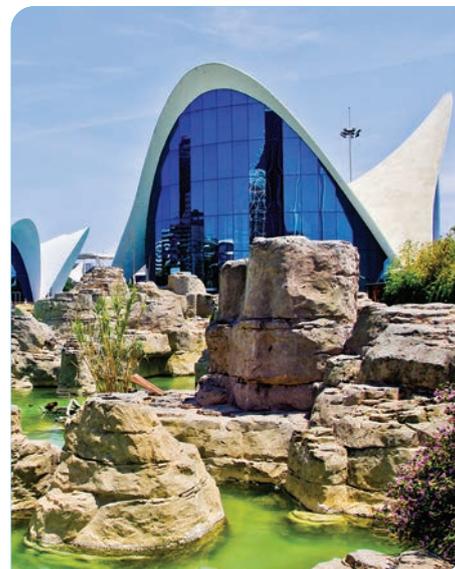

Included in the price

- Return scheduled flights
- Three nights accommodation on bed and breakfast basis at the four-star Ayre Astoria Palace Hotel, based on shared occupancy of a twin room
- Return coach transfers from Valencia Airport to the hotel

Price subject to flight/hotel availability and based on a group of 40 passengers.
