Departs Apr - Oct 2018

England's largest county, Yorkshire has a wealth of interest for visitors. We can offer an amazing deal for a three-day, two night half board break, staying at the attractive Parsonage Hotel, just six miles from the centre of York, other hotels throughout the county are also available. Our package includes a coach from your local area and throughout the three days so we can tailor-make an itinerary to suit the interests of your group, with a range of themes from art and cathedrals to country houses and transport.

The cities of Yorkshire

York, Harrogate and Leeds. All three have a very different atmosphere with lots to see and do in each. Leeds' Victorian shopping arcades are justly renowned, Harrogate boasts lovely gardens and, of course, Betty's Tea Room. Few cities can rival York for history and character, this gorgeous riverside city has it all. At its heart lies York Minster, one of the most beautiful Gothic Cathedrals. Almost traffic-free and good to visit any time of the year, York has aged well, the ginnels and alleyways run between picturesque pubs and tiny tearooms. So many places to see and things to do, this is definitely a city not to miss.

Art in Yorkshire

Home to the Yorkshire Sculpture Park, Leeds City Art Gallery, and the Hepworth in Wakefield.

Harrogate Stray

Castle Howard

Country Houses of Yorkshire

Castle Howard, Lotherton Hall, Newby Hall, Harewood House and others make Yorkshire a haven for enthusiasts of stately homes.

Included in the price

- Two nights' bed and breakfast at the three-star Parsonage Hotel, Escrick, based on shared occupancy of a twin/double room
- Two dinners at the hotel

Transport

Two steam railways, the superb National Railway Museum in York and Leeds' canals.

The Cathedrals and Churches of Yorkshire

York Minster tops the list but the county boasts some of the finest churches in the country – Beverley Minster, Ripon Cathedral, and Fountains Abbey to name a few.

Where you stay

Parsonage Hotel & Spa, Escrick

Lovely three-star hotel dating from the 1840s, located in extensive grounds in the village of Escrick, six miles south of York. The hotel boasts a restaurant, bar, spa and comfortable bedrooms with all modern facilities.
